Irene Penazzi is an Italian author and illustrator based in Venice. She works mainly with colored pencils and watercolors. Her images are inspired by her childhood memories and the nature that surrounds her.

She studied illustration at Bologna Fine Arts Academy.

Her thesis project was a wordless picture book titled Dans le jardin and was published by Maison Eliza in 2018. She is the author and illustrator of Dans la montagne (Maison Eliza, 2021), A la mer (Maison Eliza, 2024), Luge, poussette et autres bolides (La Joie de Lire, 2024), a board book about real and imagined transports, and La natura in città, (Editoriale Scienza, 2025).

She also illustrated Poesie della casetta by Italian author Rita Gamberini (Topipittori, 2023), winner of Premio Gianni Rodari 2024 and the White Raven Award 2024, and L'uomo con il cappotto verde, by Davide Calì (Lapis Edizioni, 2024).

Irene's artwork was selected in the 2024 Golden Pinwheel Young Illustrators Competition. Her illustrations were showcased in the "Italian Excellence. The New Generation of Children's Illustrators" exhibition at Bologna Children's Book Fair 2021.

In 2021 she was selected for a three-month artist residency in Draguignan, organized by La Marelle, Association Les Tours, and Dracénie Provence Agglomération.
